PIE Board Meetings:

The People Involved in Education, Inc. (“PIE”) Board meets regularly on the first Monday of each month. The PIE Board meets at the South Main Campus located at 100 Sand Ridge Ct., Lebanon, OR 97355 in work session at 5:30 p.m. followed by the regular meeting at 6:00 p.m.

Mission:

Back-to-Basics through personalized education and parental involvement.

Philosophy:

- PIE is dedicated to serving the families of our community by providing an alternative within public education.
- PIE is committed to preparing students to be exemplary citizens with a life-time love of learning.
- PIE is committed to operating schools that are intent on developing and implementing programs that meet the needs of each student.
- PIE schools endeavor to provide necessary assistance to all students to ensure “no child is left behind” and are willing to advance students according to their individual capacity to higher academic achievement.
- PIE is committed to continual engagement of all parents in the educational process.

Proven Success:

PIE (People Involved in Education, Inc.) has been in continuing successful operation since 1992.

Charter School

What is a Charter School?

A charter school in Oregon is:

- A free public school within a school district.
- Defined uniquely by contract or “charter.”
- Authorized to operate under a contract of “charter.”
- Operated by community members (often parents & teachers).
- Partially autonomous (with its own governing board).
- School of choice (for students and teachers).

What is Sweet Home Charter School?

Sweet Home Charter School is:

- A replication of the proven and effective model of Sand Ridge Charter School in the Lebanon School District.
- Operated by People Involved in Education, Inc. (“PIE”) which has been in continuing successful operation since 1992.
- Grade kindergarten through sixth.
- Core Knowledge Curriculum, Riggs Institute’s Writing and Spelling Road to Reading and Thinking, Excellence in Writing, Saxon Math, Reading Mastery, SEL “Character Strong”, and McGraw-Hill resources in Science and Reading, as well as Core Knowledge texts in Reading and Social Studies.
- Back-to-Basics emphasis.
- Direct instruction emphasis.
- Small learning groups / small classroom size (around 20).
- A state certified and highly qualified teacher in each classroom, along with a teacher assistant and parent volunteers.
- Individualized educational plans.
- Strong emphasis on parental involvement.
- Continual engagement of all parents in the educational process.
- Very attractive to home school students and other students who have not or would not otherwise use the public school system.
- Operates on about 50% of the total tax dollar that the regular public system operates on.
